American Dogs Start a Military Coup In Guatemala

By: Edvard Messler. The democratically elected Guatemalan president was forced to resign by the formerly exiled Carlos Castillo Armas who was backed by the American dogs. Although Armas' force only consisted of 200 exiles, the USA used their propaganda to inflate the size of the force in the mind of patriots, and use their complete air superiority over the region due to Guatemala's lack of air force to prevent military operations and allow Armas forces to reign supreme. The Guatemalan army refused to stand for their country and its sovereignty and instead bowed down to the American imperialists.

The President made a powerful resignation speech in which he revealed the true interests of the Americans: "They have taken a pretext of communism. The truth is elsewhere -- in financial interests of the United Fruit Company and other US firms that have much invested in Guatemala."

The President, who was a champion of the people and would help lead us to a greater future through his agrarian land reform that would reassign land from greedy capitalists, resigned due to American meddling in the sovereignty of other nations. The hypocrisy of the Americans who claim to fight for the people they invade, profess their belief in liberty and democracy while they start coups and install military dictators in democratic countries.

Fellow Comrade Witnesses American Hypocrisy in Guatemala

By: Sander Leszczynski

"It was an extraordinary speech my dear comrades" exclaimed Comrade Stanislav in a recent interview. On June 27, 1954 the President of Guatemala Jacobo Arbenz gave his final speech to his supporters following his resignation. "A very sad tone infected the crowd" Stanislav explains, "nobody wanted to see him go". Arbenz was an avid opponent against the USA which is why Comrade Stanislav was at his speech, "anyone who hates America, will always be considered a friend and comrade to me and our motherland" Stanislav continues, "I wanted to be here to show my support and help take down the American dogs". In President Arbenz speech he explains how US monopolies are unleashing chaos and respecting nothing in Guatemala. Arbenz further explains that the US is bombing and strafing Guatemala's only forces, preventing any operations from occurring. Although President Arbenz is not completely a communist, Stanislav still gives his support. "The way I see it, it's more about exposing the Americans rather than focus solely on political views. Don't get me wrong, it'd be better if he was a communist, but we can't all be perfect". Stanislav was upset on how the US handled themselves, calling them "cowards", and could not hold back when the chanting began, "long live Guatemala, long live the October Revolution!" When asked if he would support the next leader of Guatemala, Stanislav simply replied "we will wait and see".

Jacobo Arbenz Resignation Speech

Editorial: USA Strikes Again!

By: Sander L and Edvard M

Yes it is true, the Americans have wreaked havoc once again.

President Jacobo Arbenz fairly won the election in Guatemala with full support from all communist. However the American imperialists did not want to accept that their system is corrupt and works against humanity and instead found a way to force Arbenz out of office. The US began training enemy forces and supplied weapons for them to use. Then using these weapons and secretly trained forces, the US, with the help of the CIA, their agency solely created to stop humanity from reaching utopia, invaded and forced our beloved Arbenz to step down from office. Comrades, you must know that Arbenz was fighting till the very last second, but the greedy Americans were afraid that their precious fruit company was going to be destroyed. So over some fruit farms the greedy american capitalists killed thousands and forced a great and loyal leader to step down from office.
